Jack Jack and his family are playing in the snow at Yellowstone.

Watching the
sheep pass by
and kayaking
through the cold
rivers.

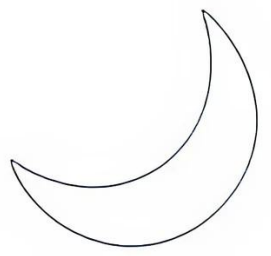

Jack Jack wanders
off into the dark
forest. When he is met with a glistening
river, and unfamiliar
faces. They crowd
around him curiously
as the sun shines
through the trees.

Jack Jack's new friends are thrilled to meet him. They are just as
adventurous and
playful as him.
They roll and play
in the forest all
day.

As the shining
moon peaks its
head, Jack Jack
wanders off
once more to find a place to rest his head.
His day well
spent
